Paris, Aug. 31.—(By The A. P.)—The reparations commission has relieved Germany of the necessity of making any further cash payments in reparations for the remainder of 1922, but defers its decision on the question of a moratorium until raadical reforms in Germany's finances are carried out. These include the balancing of her budget, reduction of Germany's forcign (Igations, currency reforms and the issue of her foreign and internal loans.

In rendering its decision, the reparations commission takes into account the fact that "the German state has lots its credit and the mark has depreciated continuously."

Announcement of the commission felt that the very existence of the commission felt that the very existence of the commission was at stake.

Premier Poincare gave his approval upon conditions that Germany furnish a gold deposit sufficient to guarantee the deferred payments involved.
